IT'S ALL ABOUT THE CLIENT

By Matthew B. Cunningham

"And they compelled a passer-by, Simon of Cyre'ne, who was coming in from the country ... to carry his cross." Mark 15:21

Similarly, using the tools of justice, my role as a personal injury attorney is to help carry the cross of individuals who have been seriously injured or suffered the loss of a family member due to someone else's misconduct or negligence. It is an honor to represent individuals whose lives have been turned upside down due to serious injury or the death of a family member. In essence, I am my clients' champion, called upon to ensure that they obtain justice and what they are legally entitled to receive. The question I must answer at the end of every case is, "Have I taken care of my client?"

A serious injury or death of a family member can impact an individual at many levels: physically, emotionally, socially and financially. Such tragic events can change the trajectory of the person's life. The person who caused such an injury should bear responsibility and the injured party must be fairly compensated. To accomplish this, at the Cunningham Law Firm we limit the number of cases we take each year so that we can provide each case with the personal attention it requires. During the preparation of the case we will bring forth whatever resources are necessary to give it the greatest opportunity for success. This includes employing the best experts in the United States and the expenditure of a significant amount of money to properly prepare the case.

For two generations the Cunningham Law Firm has been committed to championing the rights of the injured and helping families who have lost a loved one due to someone else's misconduct. Together, Matt and Jim Cunningham bring 70 years experience in handling catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases. They have obtained some of the highest personal injury verdicts and settlements in Arizona history. Since 2003 the Cunningham Law Firm has obtained more than $160 million in compensation for its clients through settlements and jury verdicts. Our role and purpose is to help injured people. For us, it's all about the client.
